

Biography

John R. Fox
President
Southwestern Title & Escrow

John Fox President of Southwestern Title & Escrow John is a native Santa Fean and began practicing law in Santa Fe in 1978. While still active in his law practice, John and partners purchased a small title and escrow company in 2007, and merged with Southwestern Title & Escrow in 2009. John has been actively involved in every aspect of the title and escrow business since 2012. He has been a member of the board of directors of the New Mexico Land Title Association since 2015 and is the current president-elect of the organization. John enjoys using his many years in the legal business to train and educate his team of real estate title and escrow professionals. He believes that his team must enjoy their work in order to best serve their customers and co-workers