

Biography

J.W. Baldock
Agency Account Manager
Fidelity National Financial – Southwest Agency Division

J. W. brings over twenty-three years of experience in the Title and Escrow Industry. J. W. has served as Senior Vice President at Curry County Abstract & Title Co. / Fort Sumner Land & Title Co. working in all aspects of the Title business including title search and examination, data entry, escrow closing, post-closing administration, and policy creation. Recently, J. W. has joined Fidelity National Financial – Southwest Agency Division where he plans to apply his expertise in both residential and commercial transactions, as well as handling transactions in multiple counties, and will continue to provide excellent customer service to Title Companies all throughout the State of New Mexico.

Beyond serving on the Board of Directors for the New Mexico Land Title Association, J. W. has also been involved with numerous Association Committees, including Rates, Rules and Forms Committee and the Finance Committee. J. W. participated as a member of the Task Force working with the Office of the Superintendent of Insurance / Title Bureau Department with the recent “MEGA Rules” revisions to the New Mexico Title Insurance Regulations. His dedication and eye for detail has earned him the New Mexico Land Title Association Professional Excellence Award for Outstanding Title Personnel.

J. W. is a life-long resident of Clovis. He and his wife, Tammy, have four children, Garrett, Ethan, Seth and Bailey. His family has participated and continues to participate in local sports, band, choir, 4-H, FFA, and community organizations.

J. W. says that he has always enjoyed the challenges of title search and examination, and loves being able to “track a chain of title” through its history!