SB12 has now been introduced in the House and will next be heard by the House Judiciary Committee. The bill has not yet been placed on the Committee's agenda, but we believe that it may be heard sometime over the weekend. Please contact the members of the House Judiciary Committee and ask for their support of SB 12. If you would like to monitor the agenda, watch the committee proceedings or sign up for public comment, here are the links. Members of the NMLTA Legislative Committee will be signing up to make public comment on behalf of the association.
